Criminal Justice System Ministry

Everyone has a story to tell. That is the refrain you hear in the meetings of the Criminal Justice System (CJS) Ministry in our synod: everyone has a story to tell about a friend or family member on probation or parole, in jail or prison, working as an attorney or being impacted by crime.

One pastor has a passion for these stories. The Rev. Sadie Pounder, Associate Pastor at Holy Trinity in Lancaster and voice of CJS Ministry in our synod, has discovered her calling to hear and empower the stories of others affected by the Criminal Justice System. Pastor Pounder's stories include...

- Working as a probation officer in Philadelphia.
- Counseling many inmates and families as a Licensed Professional Counselor.
- Serving a congregation that is on fire about CJS ministries.
- Ministering as a chaplain one day a week at the State Correctional Institution in Camp Hill.

“Lord, when was it that we saw you in prison and did not take care of you?”

Familiar with these words of Matthew's gospel, but have trouble finding ways to follow its call? Share your story—you might be surprised to know that one out of 31 people are involved in the CJS. Invite the CJS Ministry of our synod to share their story and resources with you. Fill a Basket of Love: basic supplies for those recently released to get back on their feet (see the brochure on the synod website for details). Remember the refrain...EVERYONE has a story to tell!
