13.0 TRANSITIONAL SEPARATION

13.10 Purpose

These severance benefits are to be understood as providing support during the transition time prior to another call or employment. Severance benefits are not extended beyond such time when the individual begins work under call or finds other employment. Responsibility for notification of a call or other employment rests with the severance benefits recipient.

13.20 Eligible Persons

The persons eligible for these benefits are bishops and executive staff members (as defined above in Sections 3.10 and 3.20) of the 65 synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America who were either:

- A) Elected bishop of a synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, or
- B) Selected as synod executive staff and whose office or employment by the synod was involuntarily terminated due to action of the synod by non-election of the incumbent synodical bishop, change of position functions, or resignation upon request of a newly elected bishop.

Disability is not covered under these provisions, since disability is covered under the provisions of the Disability Benefits Plan the ELCA.

Persons planning retirement, and therefore voluntarily declining election or appointment, are not eligible for these benefits.

Eligible persons will be hereinafter referred to as severance benefits recipients.

13.30 Benefits

The severance benefits shall:

- A) Be effective for the severance benefits recipient who has served at least one full term as bishop or, normally, in the case of other executive synodical staff, who has served a term concurrent with the bishop's term of service.
- B) Begin upon vacating the synodical office or position and following the period covered by earned vacation which was unused at the time of the termination.
- C) Be paid on the benefits recipient's regular pay periods.
- D) Be three months of benefits.

13.40 Amount of Benefits

Benefits recipients will receive:

- A) Current monthly compensation (salary, housing and FICA reimbursement, if applicable).
- B) Participation in the Portico Benefit Services pension at the designated rate, Survivor Benefits Plan, Major Medical/Dental Plan, and Disability Plan for the months of severance benefits.

Following the expiration of the severance benefits, benefits recipients may retain their participation in the Survivor Benefits Plan, Major Medical/Dental Plan, and Disability Plan at their own expense, according to the provisions of the right to continue benefits under those plans. The benefits recipient's termination of call/employment will be deemed to occur on the date severance benefits cease.

13.50 Disposition

In case of a difference of opinion in interpretation of this Severance Benefits Policy, the Synod Council will make the final disposition.

14.0 GRIEVANCE

14.10 Conditions

An employee who feels that any of the following conditions exist may follow the procedure for grievance.

- A) Unfair or undocumented evaluation or discipline;
- B) Rights and privileges delineated in these policies denied without cause;
- C) Restriction of the ability to perform required act.

Complaints or concerns about harassment or discrimination because of race, color, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, handicap/disability, or status in any other group protected by federal/state/local law should not be brought under the Grievance policy. Instead, complaints or concerns about harassment or discrimination should be brought under this synod's HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE POLICY, Section 15.0.

14.20 Procedure

- A) Discuss the matter with appropriate executive;
- B) If settlement is not reached, the employee may take the dispute to the personnel officer, who will make a written disposition of the grievance within ten days;
- C) At the prompt request of the bishop, the matter may be referred to the Personnel Committee, which will meet with the employee within ten days and render a decision within ten additional days;
- D) If the employee is still unsatisfied, he or she may appeal in writing to the Synod Council. The request must be received by Synod Council no less than one working week prior to the next meeting of council or its Executive Committee;
- E) Synod Council may, in its discretion, approve or deny the grievance, request additional facts, or conduct a hearing. The decision(s) of the Synod Council with respect to the processing or resolution of a grievance is (are) final.

15.0 HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE

15.10 Policy on Harassment and Discriminatory Behavior

It is the policy of the synod to maintain a work environment free of all forms of unlawful discriminatory behavior, including all forms of harassment directed toward individuals because of race, color, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, handicap/disability, or status in any other group protected by federal/state/local law. Therefore, the use of disparaging terms, derogatory remarks, and displays of insensitive treatment, directly or indirectly related to individuals because of race, color, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, handicap/disability, or status in any other group protected by federal/state/local law will not be tolerated.

This policy pertains to every aspect of an individual's work relationship with the synod, including recruitment, selection, compensation, benefits, training and development, continuing education, social and recreational programs, promotion, transfer, demotion, relocation, corrective action, termination, and all other terms and conditions of employment. When any synod employee commits acts of discrimination, it seriously dilutes efforts in the area of mission response.

15.20 Policy on Sexual Harassment

It is also the policy of the synod to maintain a work place free of any form of sexual harassment or sexual intimidation. Any form of sexual harassment within the work place is unacceptable behavior and is subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

15.30 Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to: unwelcome and unsolicited sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, discriminatory tormenting based on gender and other undesired verbal, visual, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. In particular, sexual harassment occurs if there is:

- A) Submission to any kind of sexual harassment as an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment;
- B) Submission to, or rejection of, sexually harassing behavior if used as a basis for employment or other personnel decisions affecting the recipient of the behavior;
- C) Purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the recipient's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

15.40 Reporting Harassment and Other Discriminatory Behavior and No Retaliation

An employee who believes there has been a violation of this Harassment and Discrimination in the Work Place Policy has the right and responsibility to report the perceived violation as soon as possible, either to the personnel officer, or to the bishop in the event the personnel officer is alleged to have engaged in or tolerated harassment, or to a member of Synod Council in the event the bishop is alleged to have engaged in or tolerated harassment. Allegations of harassment will be investigated promptly, objectively, and confidentially. A complainant has the right to invite a co-worker to be present at proceedings regarding the complaint. (All harassment and discrimination complaints should be reported immediately to the personnel officer or bishop as described above so as to avoid the situation where a complaint either intentionally or unintentionally does not get beyond an executive or immediate supervisor. Any executive or supervisor who receives a complaint about harassment or discrimination should report the complaint to the personnel officer or bishop as described above.)

This synod will take no adverse action against an employee who, in good faith, complains of harassment and/or discrimination and will, to the extent possible, protect such employee against reprisal from other employees. Disciplinary action, including dismissal, when appropriate, will be taken where it is determined that harassment did occur, or where an executive has failed to report violations of this policy or employee complaints of harassment to the personnel officer. Anyone who retaliates against a person who has made a good faith complaint or participates in an investigation under this policy is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

This synod recognizes that the question of whether a particular action or course of conduct constitutes harassment requires a factual determination. This synod recognizes also that false accusations of harassment can cause serious harm to innocent persons. Therefore, a thorough investigation will be conducted in each case. Anyone who makes a serious and false accusation about an employee knowing that the allegation is false will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

15.50 Appeals

If the complainant is not satisfied with the investigation made and/or action taken by the personnel officer or the bishop, the complainant should follow the appeal procedure described in Section 14.20 C, D, and E in the policy.

16.0 ETHICS POLICY

16.10 Employee Operational Ethics Policy

The Employee Operational Ethics Policy applies to all employees of this synod in matters relating to the performance of their duties and responsibilities.

All funds and property received and administered by this synod are entrusted to this synod by God through the faithful financial support of Lower Susquehanna Synod members and friends. The highest degree of stewardship and fiduciary responsibility is expected of all employees, including the receiving, reporting, and use of funds, property, and time. Employees are responsible for complying with laws, regulations, and synod and churchwide policies and procedures.

16.20 Standards of Ethical Conduct

- A. Duty of Loyalty. Each employee is responsible for acting in the best interests of this synod. These responsibilities are set forth below.
- B. Conflicts of interest. All employees shall avoid conflicts of interest, potential conflicts of interest, and situations that give the appearance of conflicts of interest.
 1. Conflict of interest means any situation in which the employee may be influenced or appear to be influenced in decision-making or business dealings by any motive or desire for personal advantage other than the success and well-being of this synod. Personal advantage means a financial interest or some other personal interest, whether present or potential, whether direct or indirect. This standard applies to both actual and contemplated transactions. When in doubt, the employee is to assume there might be a conflict.
 2. All present and potential conflicts of interest issues must be disclosed. If the conflict is known in advance of any meeting, business transaction, contract, or other activity at which issues may be discussed or on which the issues may have a bearing on the employee's approach, whether directly or indirectly, it shall be disclosed ahead of time. If the conflict is not known in advance, it shall be disclosed when the actual or potential conflict becomes apparent. Disclosure is to be made in writing to the personnel officer.
 3. When issues relate to a meeting, disclosure is appropriate to the person in charge of the meeting and, at the discretion of the person in charge, to the full meeting. The employee shall leave the meeting room to avoid all discussion, voting, and deliberation of the issue. Following full disclosure of the present or potential conflict, the board, program committee, or advisory committee may decide that no conflict of interest exists and invite the participation of the employee. All such actions shall be recorded in any minutes or records kept.
 4. All employees are likewise to disclose, in writing, matters and relationships that have the potential for giving rise to the appearance of a conflict in business dealings with this synod. Examples include, but are not limited to, financial interests and/or leadership roles with vendors and other organizations doing business with this synod. The personnel officer will evaluate disclosures and determine the appropriate action to be taken. Business dealings with friends and family are particularly sensitive and are to be disclosed and carefully evaluated because of the potential for inferences of tangible or intangible personal advantage and the appearance of impropriety.

5. To avoid appearances of impropriety, any gifts, gratuities, and hospitality to an employee—such as free travel, hotel or residential rooms—typically will not be accepted by any employee from any person or organization that sells, delivers, or receives any goods, materials, or services to or from this synod. Occasional gifts with value under $50 (such as flowers or food) are exempt from this rule. Gifts that primarily benefit this synod and not an individual, such as gifts of hospitality given to this synod by hotels, conventions, and conferences in relation to official synod business, are exempt from this rule. Employees also may participate in reasonable, normal relationship-building activities, such as meals, sporting events, and other such activities. All gifts and such participation are to be reported, in advance if possible, to the personnel officer.
- C. Confidentiality. Employees shall not disclose information about this synod that is not known outside of this synod or is not known by public means.
 - D. Duty of Care. The duty of care and obligation of good stewardship requires all employees to act first in the best interests of this synod. All employees shall exercise reasonable efforts to inform themselves of the mission and ministry of this synod and the ELCA.
 - E. Transactions and Reporting. Each employee has a duty to prepare, process, maintain and report complete, accurate, and timely records pertaining to their role, including, but not limited to, journal entries, expense reports, disbursement requests, and payroll transactions. This also includes safeguarding all physical, financial, informational, and other synod assets. In addition, no undisclosed or unrecorded fund or asset will be established, and no artificial or false entries will be made in the financial or other records of this synod. The use of this synod’s funds for any unauthorized or unlawful purpose is prohibited.
 - F. Duty to Report and No Retaliation for Making a Report. Employees have a duty to report all breaches of this policy or suspected breaches of this policy or the appearance or the possibility of breaches of this policy, including misconduct, fraudulent transactions, errors related to overpayments, or any other impropriety, whether by themselves or by others to the personnel officer, the bishop, or another officer of this synod. Reports also may be made anonymously. Anyone, including any executive or supervisor, who receives a report under this policy should notify either the personnel officer, the bishop or another officer of this synod. Verbal reports should be put in writing. Anyone making a report should take care to be factual and objective. There will be no retaliation for good faith reports or participation in an investigation. Anyone who retaliates against a person who has made a good faith report under this policy is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. The Audit Committee of this synod should be notified and consulted regarding reports and investigations under this policy.

- G. Violations. Violation or noncompliance may result in discipline, including possible termination.

17.0 WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY REGARDING REPORTING QUESTIONABLE OR IMPROPER ACCOUNTING OR AUDITING MATTERS AND/OR VIOLATIONS OF THE PERSONNEL POLICIES OF SYNOD

17.10 General

The Lower Susquehanna Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America requires directors, officers, employees, and committee members to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of this synod we are required to practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and to comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Complaints or concerns about harassment or discrimination because of race, color, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status, handicap/disability, or status in any other group protected by federal/state/local law should not be brought under this Whistleblower policy. Instead, complaints or concerns about harassment or discrimination should be brought under the synod's HARRASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE POLICY, Section 15.0 of this policy.

17.20 Reporting Responsibility

Each director, officer, employee, or committee member has an obligation to report questionable or improper accounting or auditing matters as well as violations or suspected violations of the personal policies of this synod. The bishop and personnel officer of this synod shall be responsible for investigating reports and making appropriate recommendations to the Personnel Committee or Audit Committee depending upon the nature of the concern and to the Executive Committee of the Synod Council.

17.30 No Retaliation

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable directors, officers, employees, or committee members to raise concerns which may need investigation and appropriate action. With this goal in mind, no director, officer, employee, or committee member who in good faith reports a violation shall suffer harassment, retaliation, or adverse employment consequences. Moreover, a director, officer, employee, or committee member who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment or removal from volunteer position.

17.40 Reporting Violations

Reports of questionable or improper accounting or auditing matters as well as violations or suspected violations of the personnel policies of this synod should be made to the bishop or personnel officer either verbally or in writing. Verbal reports should be reduced to writing as soon as possible after being received. Reports may be made anonymously.

Anyone, including any executive or supervisor, who receives a report under this policy should notify either the personnel officer or the bishop. If the report relates to accounting and auditing matters of this synod, the personnel officer or the bishop should consult with the Audit Committee of this synod. If the report relates to violations of the personnel policies of this synod, the personnel officer or the bishop should consult with the Personnel Committee of Synod Council.

17.50 Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates improper accounting or auditing practice or a violation of the personnel policies of this synod. Anyone who makes a serious and false allegation about an employee knowing that the allegation is false will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

17.60 Confidentiality

Reports of violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

17.70 Handling of Reported Violations

All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.
