

Spiritual Directors in the LSS 2021

While denomination is not usually a concern in choosing a spiritual director, it often happens that those training for rostered leadership in the church find it a necessary struggle to make the experiential link between doctrine, theology and life. It is helpful in those matters to seek out aid from a spiritual director who speaks "one's own language" so to speak.

For that purpose, the following Lutheran Spiritual Directors are offered for your consideration:
