Global Leadership From Our Synod

Chad & Natalie Rimmer,
Lower Susquehanna Synod-ELCA Senegal missionaries

“In a predominantly Islamic country, this ministry of the church witnesses to God’s love through Jesus Christ.

“There is plenty of bread to go around - food, wealth, health - life abundant. But we have to share,” Chad says. “Hunger is not God’s failure to provide, it’s our failure to share.”

- Colossians 2:6–7a

The Lutheran Church of Senegal’s ministry is founded on bearing witness to the gospel in a largely Muslim context. Reaching out to educate children, provide health care for those affected by HIV and AIDS and help the human community flourish through agricultural initiatives.

Currently, the church supports a new Lutheran church in Gambia, a neighboring country. The goal of this project is to proclaim Christ and move the church’s outreach to the next level.
