Our Resource Center & Center for Faith Formation

Strengthening and networking leaders for faith formative discipleship, the Lower Susquehanna Synod Center for Faith Formation equips congregational leaders for service in the world.

Through workshops, resource café gatherings, exciting signature events featuring faith formation practitioners, and a variety of print and digital resources, the Lower Susquehanna Synod equips congregational leaders to adapt and retool Christian faith formation for service in the world.

- Equipping leaders to nurture spiritual formation and active engagement within their congregations
- Strengthening and networking leaders for faith formative discipleship
- Offering a wide variety of programming resources for mission and ministry
- Helping leaders retool faith formation to grow congregations in Christ

Fall of 2014, the Lower Susquehanna Synod repositioned our resource center and office for children youth and family ministry as a Center for Faith Formation. The Center, not referring to a physical building or time and space, keeps Jesus as the center of this spiritual training grounds for ministry leaders. The Lower Susquehanna Synod Resource Center and Office for Children, Youth & Family, partner as an intentional Center for Faith Formation.

The Lower Susquehanna Synod Resource Center is a hospitality hub that provides space for conversation, learning, previewing and borrowing materials. Over 3,000 DVDs, books, curricula and games can be checked out for preview or use by congregational leaders.

Faith formation are the practices and opportunities — such as praying, worshiping, learning, celebrating, and serving — that engage an entire community in lifelong Christian formation and ongoing spiritual growth.
